Numb. 13440.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 14, to Tuesday July 17, 1792.

Whitehall, July 17.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Canterbury, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with the moſt unfeigned Duty, and deſirous to expreſs the moſt thankful Senſe of your Majeſty's conſtant Solicitude for the Welfare of all thoſe who are placed by Providence under your Government.

In the Proclamation lately iſſued by your Royal Authority we have to acknowledge alſo, with eſpecial Gratitude, that a new and diſtinguiſhed Teſtimony has been given to us of that paternal Care, under which your Majeſty is at all Times zealous to preſerve inviolate the Eccleſiaſtical and Civil Conſtitution of theſe Realms.

We have ſeen, with the moſt heartfelt Satisfaction, the general Anxiety of all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects to applaud a Meaſure, ſo well directed to the Security of thoſe Intereſts which are moſt dear to them; and we are earneſt to make it known to your Majeſty, that whilſt we venerate the happy Conſtitution under which we live, we yield to none in the Senſe we entertain of the Benefit of thoſe Exertions, which it hath ſeemed good to your Majeſty's Wiſdom to uſe in Support of it.

We further aſſure your Majeſty, that under the Senſe of Duty which belongs to us, in common with our Fellow Subjects, and as acting likewiſe under the more immediate Obligations of our holy Profeſſion, we ſhall, with one Mind, labour to co-operate with the gracious Intentions which your Majeſty has manifeſted.

As Miniſters of the Goſpel, we know ourſelves eſpecially called upon to promote Peace, the Habits of good Order, and the Well-being of Society, the very Foundation of which can be laid only in a true Senſe of Religion and a pure Obedience to it's Laws: And as Citizens of a Country diſtinguiſhed amongſt the Nations of the Earth for it's Happineſs and Liberty, we feel ourſelves in the Poſſeſſion of that, which it muſt be our beſt Wiſdom to maintain with Stedfaſtneſs, both againſt the bold Violence of open Sedition, and that Danger with which the looſe and intemperate Spirit of Innovation may threaten it.

We pray fervently that your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of a faithful and free People, and that the Almighty may at all Times aid your Counſels with his holy Wiſdom and Guidance.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of St. Peter, in York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Archbiſhop, and Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of St. Peter in York, beg Leave to expreſs our Concurrence in the general Approbation which your Majeſty's Proclamation has received; from the ſeaſonable iſſuing of which we have all derived a Comfort, conſidering it as wiſely calculated to repreſs the infatuated Project of creating a Bond of Union among the Vicious and Profligate, againſt the honeſt and reſpectable Part of your Majeſty's Subjects, and of overturning thoſe venerable Inſtruments of Order, by which alone are upheld all the Intereſts of Civil Society.

The People who ſo amply poſſeſs all the Comforts of Life under your Majeſty's gracious Government, are too wiſe to be enſnared by Cobweb Sophiſtries, and too manly not to expreſs their Indignation at ſo offenſive an Attempt. They have already expreſſed it by an uniform Movement.

As for us, employed as we are in the Service of Religion and Virtue, we cannot help finding a peculiar Pleaſure

[Price Eight-pence.]

Pleaſure on being ſo ſtrongly aſſured, that the moral Sentiment of our Fellow Citizens is ſo perfectly congenial to our own; we think it therefore incumbent upon us not to be backward in joining our Voice to the National Exertion on this important Occaſion, in declaring our unremitted Zeal for ſupporting our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, as well as in expreſſing our Duty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon, and our Gratitude for the Happineſs we daily feel under the beſt Syſtem of Government which the Hiſtory of Mankind has yet afforded.

Given under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Archbiſhop, and the Common Seal of the ſaid Dean and Chapter, the 9th Day of July, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord 1792.

W. Ebor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Clergy of the Archdeaconry of York, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our grateful Thanks for this freſh Mark of your paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects, ſhewn to us by your late gracious Proclamation.

It is with the utmoſt Concern that we have obſerved ſome late Attempts to ſpread Diſcontent among the People, and ſtir them up to Acts of Outrage and Sedition againſt our excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State.

We hereby aſſure your Majeſty that we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to diſcourage and ſuppreſs every ſuch wicked Deſign, and to inſtil into the Minds of thoſe committed to our Charge the juſt Principles of Allegiance to your Majeſty, and Submiſſion to the Laws of their Country.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Biſhop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter of Wells, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bath and Wells, with the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty and Loyalty, preſume to offer to your Majeſty our grateful Acknowledgements for your watchful Attention to the Peace and Proſperity of your Kingdoms, and the Happineſs of your People; and, in a more particular Manner, for your late ſeaſonable and gracious Proclamation, to guard the Minds of the Unwary againſt the dangerous Aſſociations that have been formed, and the pernicious Doctrines that have been induſtriouſly publiſhed and propagated, to poiſon the Minds and corrupt the Principles of the People.

As the Preachers and Miniſters of Peace, we look with Abhorrence on the wicked Arts and Efforts of Faction to diſturb it; and, with the moſt cordial Attachment to our free and happy Conſtitution of Government, and a lively Senſe of your Majeſty's juſt and prudent Adminiſtration of it, we cannot ſee, without the utmoſt Indignation, the bold Attempts of profligate Theoriſts to undermine it.

We are duly ſenſible that our Function requires from us a ſtrict Attention to the Principles of the People committed to our Charge, both as Fellow Citizens and Fellow Chriſtians; and your Majeſty may be aſſured, that we ſhall continue to make it our anxious and conſtant Care to inſtruct and confirm them in juſt Sentiments of Duty and Loyalty, and to impreſs upon their Minds the golden Rule of the Wiſe Man, which contains in it the Eſſence both of practical Religion and ſound Policy: "To fear God, "to honour the King, and not to meddle with them "that are given to Change."

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph.

OF your Majeſty's watchful Care over the Rights and Intereſts of your People a ſtronger or more ſeaſonable Proof could not have been given than that which your late Royal Proclamation affords.

The wicked Attempts of a few reſtleſs Spirits to diſturb the Minds of the happieſt Nation upon Earth, and alienate their Affections from that envied Conſtitution, which is the Source and Security of their Liberty and Happineſs, call upon the Virtuous of all Orders to expreſs their Abhorrence of ſuch Proceedings, and check the Progreſs of them by every Means in their Power.

It ſurely becomes the Miniſters of the eſtabliſhed Religion of the Country, above all others, to ſtand forward on ſuch an Occaſion. The Principles they profeſs and teach, and that intimate Relation which they hold with the State, require it of them.

Satisfied that the Strength and Beauty of our Conſtitution depend in a great Meaſure on the ſtrict Union between it's Civil and Religious Polity;

We the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph, beg to aſſure your Majeſty of our hearty Concurrence in endeavouring to maintain that Union firm and inviolate againſt all Attempts, open and inſidious, that have been made to weaken it. So long as we are true to ourſelves, and ſteady to the Charge committed to us, we have nothing to fear.

The Efforts of Sedition will periſh in their Weakneſs; the pure Faith and Practice of the Goſpel will grow among us; Peace and good Order and protected Liberty will prevail, and be valued as they ought: And the God of Peace and Order will ſecure to us the Bleſſings of our happy Conſtitution, both in Church and State, under the auſpicious Government of your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Offspring for Ages to come.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Biſhop, and Dean and Chapter, and Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſe of Worceſter, humbly beg Leave to return our warmeſt Thanks to your Majeſty for your Majeſty's late wiſe and provident Proclamation.

In our preſent Circumſtances, Sir, nothing but Experience could make it conceivable that any of your Majeſty's Subjects, in the full Enjoyment of every Bleſſing which the beſt Government can beſtow, ſhould be ſo weak or wicked as to endeavour to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your People, and to diſſeminate ſuch Principles and Writings among them as tend to deſtroy, under Pretence of Reforming, our excellent Conſtitution, in Church and State.

One Reformation, indeed, can never be unſeaſonable, which is that of our Hearts and Lives, whenever they become diſorderly and licentious: And this Reformation, Sir, we your faithful Clergy ſhall labour to effect; in ourſelves firſt, and then in thoſe committed to our Charge. In performing or even attempting this Service, we ſhall do our Duty to God, to your Majeſty, and to the Public. For the Reſt we implore the Divine Bleſſing on the wiſe and ſalutary Meaſures your Majeſty has taken to preſerve the unequalled Form of Government under which we live from all bold and hazardous Innovations, and to prevent the Wantonneſs of Proſperity (the too common Diſeaſe of happy States) from diſturbing the Public Order and Tranquillity.

WE, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Carliſle, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the moſt cordial Aſſurances of Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and at the ſame Time to expreſs the ſtrong Senſe we entertain of the Bleſſings derived to us from our happy Conſtitution in Church and State.

We have obſerved, with much Regret, the Efforts which have lately been made to render your Majeſty's Subjects inſenſible of theſe Bleſſings, and to weaken in their Minds the Sentiments of Submiſſion to the Laws, and of Confidence in Parliament, which, (under Divine Providence) we are perſuaded can alone ſecure to us the Continuance of thoſe diſtinguiſhed Advantages which we now actually enjoy.

Convinced that real Liberty can exiſt only under the Authority of regular Government, and that the mixed Form of our Legiſlature comprehends and provides for the Intereſts of the Community through all it's various Deſcriptions, we wiſh to offer to your Majeſty our moſt grateful Acknowledgements for your late Royal Proclamation.

We think it a Meaſure wiſely calculated to repreſs ſeditious Practices, and to guard the Unwary againſt the dangerous Effects of thoſe deluſive Theories of Government, which have been ſo induſtriouſly circulated in every Part of the Kingdom; and we cannot but conſider it as a freſh Inſtance of that earneſt Solicitude and affectionate Regard for the Welfare of the People, which have ever characterized your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Briſtol, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude for the many ſignal Bleſſings we enjoy, through a kind Providence, under your Majeſty's moſt gracious, mild, and juſt Government. The Royal Proclamation, lately iſſued out by your Majeſty's Command, we eſteem as a recent and ſtrong Proof of your Majeſty's unwearied Attention to and Zeal for the Intereſts and Welfare of all your People. We deſire to aſſure your Majeſty, that we do from our Hearts deteſt and abhor all thoſe dangerous Doctrines ſo induſtriouſly propagated in divers ſeditious and inflammatory Writings, as well as thoſe no leſs dangerous Aſſociations lately eſtabliſhed, under the ſpecious Pretence of Zeal for the Public Good; all of which, we are fully ſenſible, tend only to create groundleſs Jealouſies and Apprehenſions, and to introduce nothing better than Confuſion, Diſorder, and general Unhappineſs amongſt a People, more than ordinarily bleſſed, under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious and gentle Reign over them.

Deeply impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we are earneſtly deſirous to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are determined, to the utmoſt of our Power, to diſcourage and ſuppreſs all ſuch inflammatory Publications and Meetings, ſo extremely dangerous to the Conſtitution itſelf, and ſo directly ſubverſive of the Peace, good Order, and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms in general: And we moſt devoutly and fervently beſeech Almighty God to continue your Majeſty's Reign, in uninterrupted Peace and Safety, long, very long, over us.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Derby, beg Leave to return our moſt grateful Thanks to your Majeſty for the additional Proof which you have given of your watchful Solicitude for the Welfare of your People, and of your Zeal for the Stability of the fundamental Principles of the Britiſh Conſtitution, by iſſuing your late gracious Proclamation. We intreat your Majeſty to be aſſured, that we are deeply impreſſed with a Conviction of the intrinſic Excellence of that auſpicious Form of Government under which this Nation has enjoyed ſo many Bleſſings, and attained to ſuch diſtinguiſhed Pre-eminence amongſt the Powers of Europe; and we humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that no Meaſures on our Part ſhall be wanting to preſerve the Conſtitution which we ſo juſtly prize, and to tranſmit, undiminiſhed, to our Poſterity that Happineſs, which we ſo providentially ourſelves enjoy.

Whitehall, July 17.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town and Liberty of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, has been preſented to the King by Sir Henry Bridgman, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough of Wenlock, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town and Liberty of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, in Common Hall aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our Loyalty and Gratitude for the paternal Care and Attention which your Majeſty has ever ſhewn for the Welfare and Protection of your Subjects.

We further preſume unfeignedly to thank your Majeſty for the well-timed Proclamation, which, by your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs has been iſſued for the Suppreſſion of Riot and Diſorder, endeavoured to be promoted by the inflammatory and ſeditious Writings of a deſperate, though deſpicable Faction.

Under the Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Reign, and by the Wiſdom of your Councils, we enjoy real Liberty, both in the Protection of our Perſons and Property.

Whilſt Anarchy and Confuſion diſtract Neighbouring States, we reap the ſolid and ſubſtantial Bleſſings of Peace, producing us the Emoluments of a flouriſhing Commerce, giving Life to our Manufactories, and Opulence to the State.

Convinced that theſe Bleſſings flow to us from our wiſe, admirable and free Conſtitution, we are determined to ſupport it in Church and State, with your Majeſty's Right thereto, in its hereditary Succeſſion, as by Law eſtabliſhed, with our Lives and Property, againſt the libellous Attacks of ill-diſpoſed Men.

That your Majeſty may long, very long reign in Health and Happineſs over a free and grateful People; that your Royal Iſſue may afterwards enjoy that Throne equally and deſervedly as your Majeſty, beloved loved and revered by their Subjects, is the fervent Prayer of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town and Liberty of Wenlock.

R. B. W. Browne, Bailiff.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council Men of the Borough of Appleby has been preſented to the King by the Hon. William Grimſton, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council Men of the antient Corporation of Appleby.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council Men of the antient Corporation of Appleby, in Common Hall aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Expreſſions of the very high Satisfaction we feel at the iſſuing of your Majeſty's late gracious Proclamation; a Meaſure which, with the utmoſt Gratitude, we ſee hath been adopted by your Majeſty from that paternal Care ſo conſtantly manifeſted for the Happineſs and Proſperity of your faithful Subjects, to repel the inſidious Attacks of baſe and deſigning Men, upon that beſt of all known Conſtitutions which they are wickedly labouring to overturn.

Senſible of the great and many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government, we will at all Times, both from Duty and Inclination, be watchful to put in Execution thoſe wiſe Laws and Regulations which tend to ſecure Peace and Harmony to theſe Kingdoms: And it is our earneſt Prayer that your Majeſty may long continue happily to reign over a loyal and free People.

Given under our Common Seal, this 3d Day of July, 1792.

John Thwaites, Mayor.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Maidenhead, has been preſented to the King by P. Powney, Eſq; the High Steward, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Maidenhead, in the County of Berks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere Thanks for your moſt gracious Proclamation.

We gratefully acknowledge this recent Proof of your Majeſty's watchful and parental Care over us. We deſire to aſſure your Majeſty of our utter Abhorrence of thoſe Publications, which inculcate Faction and Sedition, which diffuſe a Spirit of Diſcontent among the People, and of thoſe Aſſociations which diſſeminate Principles ſubverſive of our excellent Conſtitution.

We hold it to be our indiſpenſable Duty to maintain this Conſtitution ſo perfected, and ſo delivered down to us by our Anceſtors, and religiouſly to tranſmit it unimpaired to our Poſterity, who will claim it at our Hands.

We pray that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and happy, over a free, a loyal and united People.

Whitehall, July 17.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, and to declare our inviolable Attachment to the Form of Government eſtabliſhed in this Realm, and our Conviction that the Proſperity of the Empire and the Liberty and Happineſs of the People are inſeparably connected with the Preſervation of the preſent Conſtitution.

We have ſeen, with much Regret, Attempts to weaken the Confidence of your People in the Legiſlature, and to ſubſtitute for the Love of Order and well-regulated Freedom, Principles utterly inconſiſtent with all the Relations and Duties of Civil Society; and well aware of the deſtructive Tendency of ſuch Principles, we deem it our indiſpenſible Duty, as good Citizens, to unite in the firmeſt Endeavours to ſuppreſs them.

And we intreat your Majeſty to accept our moſt grateful Thanks for your Royal Proclamation, which we conſider as a freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's unceaſing Care and Anxiety for the Welfare of your Kingdom, and for the Support of legal and conſtitutional Government.

[Tranſmitted by Robert Pearſon, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Magiſtrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Montgomery, fully ſenſible at all Times of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Regard for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, beg Leave to offer our dutiful and unfeigned Thanks for your gracious Attention to theſe Objects, manifeſted in your late Royal Proclamation.

It is with the utmoſt Indignation we have ſeen the Attempts that have been made by the Publication of ſeditious Writings and unwarrantable Aſſociations to excite groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents, tending to ſubvert the Peace and good Order of the Country.

On our Part we embrace this Opportunity to aſſure your Majeſty, that, in our ſeveral Capacities as Men or Magiſtrates, we are ready and reſolved to ſupport our happy Conſtitution in Church and State; being fully convinced that it is only in a ſtrict and invariable

Adherence

Adherence to theſe Principles, that we can hope for a Continuance of the Bleſſings which we now enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government.

[Tranſmitted by the Earl of Powis.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Common-Council and Burgeſſes of the Town and Borough of Pembroke.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Common Council and Burgeſſes of the Town and Borough of Pembroke, beg Leave to expreſs our warmeſt Gratitude for this freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Solicitude, in your late Proclamation, for the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People, and for the Protection of our preſent moſt happy Conſtitution both in Church and State.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we deteſt the Principles of thoſe evil-minded Perſons who wiſh to ſubvert our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, and to introduce Anarchy and Confuſion among their Fellow Citizens.

As we cannot but be deeply ſenſible of the numberleſs Bleſſings we daily experience under your Majeſty's moſt mild and gracious Government, we will ſupport the ſame by every Exertion in our Power, and take all Opportunities of teſtifying to the World that your Majeſty reigns in the Hearts of a free and loyal People.

[Tranſmited by Hugh Barlow, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for that Town.]
